YASCNA Agenda

4. Bring to homegroups about generating interest in forming an ad-hoc committee to start young peoples groups. We can get in contact with Charlie from San Diego about more information.

Old Business- T-shirt discussion, tabled to find out more information. I did talk to an addict who knows where the 50 shirts went which was to World and they were not paid for with area money and were donated at the event. Thus, problem solved. We need to talk to MadShirts about keeping things like this separate from our order invoices so that this does not happen again.

New Business- Vickie-Prudent reserve issue, not sure what I need to write exactly... but the fact that our prudent reserve is so high and our RCM can't bring a donation, even though we seem to be sitting on money and not doing what we said we would back when we voted on raising the prudent reserve.

End of Business
