Note: _ 12 of _13 GSRs are present. Quorum was / was not established.

Old Business:

Taxes: Crystal still hasn't followed up. Trent talked to Nate T. and he is the guy running for Vice Chair for ARCNA. Trent has his number and he is willing to assist for both NACONA and YASC.

Motions:

Lauren / Michelle: $3k for new activities supplies. Dave said that the cost of the system is high, so he is going to reach out to the manufacturer to see if they can get it discounted. We discussed and the motion will go back to the groups. The ability to hear the message is important, especially at outdoor events. The committee has rented in the past and its cost and resource prohibitive.

NEW BUSINESS:

OPEN FORUM:

Trent: THE GSR assembly might cover this, but it's been a great idea for home groups to get involved with each subcommittee. It also helps people to get more involved in these 1 time a month meetings.

Annette: Explained what the open positions are and the responsibilities and encouraged new members to speak up and to ask questions. DJ mentioned that all of the info is in their policies. DJ also said that in this Area when we are lacking people to fill service committees, that clean time requirements can be waived. There was discussion about sponsors encouraging their sponsees to get involved.

Suzy would like to be interested in the Outreach position. She is a GSR. So, there is a conflict there. Trent mentioned filling out the statement of willingness and the policies for what the requirements of the position are.

Close Meeting: 1st - Jesse 2nd - Deb

YASC MINUTES

Drinks, Paper towels , other paper goods such as napkins, silverware, cleaning supplies are various and will change frequently.

There is also a box of meeting supplies/ office type things we may need at an event (duct tape/scissors/etc.)

So , here is a summary of what has changed from beginning to end of 2023. The Eurmax canopy has a small broken piece but it can be help up with a little piece being placed in the arm. We are missing the bags for the cornhole sets, we gained a nylon chair through lost and found, we have 4 folding chairs with foot rests that are being accounted for. We bought some large plastic storage shelves on the day of the inventory to organize the storage unit. We lost the plastic NA sandwich board, the coffee maker was broken. We gained a sleeping bad in lost and found. We gained a projector that was donated and a large screen that we purchased. Our Bingo games are missing a few balls. I am unsure of the notes on life jackets but it appears we lost a few life jackets. We gained a box of 3ft marshmallow sticks leftover purchase from the campout. Our PR and H&I stuff is in the storage unit. We have some H&I jail and bail boards from that event. There are 6 IP racks for PR in the unit. We gained all of the casino stuff listed. I'm pretty sure we got rid of expired/old seasonings. Im not entirely sure this list is accurate. We gained a lot of kitchen utensils, a brand new huge restaurant size pot and restaurant cutting board. We need plates and coffee cups before an event.

I think that sums it up. I recommend that we get a PA system. It is necessary at our events and would help better carry the message because people could actually hear. We had many events last year where the speaker could not be heard, including the May event where we rented a speaker and it still sucked. The one proposed would not have this issue. We also think two coffee makers, a new cash box with more slots , clip boards, cash bags, I think we need a new volleyball(?). Also two quality sets of cornhole with bags, Ask Aaron K for input on these. The cheap ones on Amazon will be the same quality and they are not great. We use them at many events and I think it would be a good investment for our activities.
